

TTI Success Insights®

Team Behavioral Report

The Importance of Teamwork

Teamwork has always been an important part to the success of any business. Teams are designed to accomplish more work in less time and become capable of handling all aspects required for success. Whether it is one team that runs a company or several at multiple locations, teams are responsible for working together to accomplish a common goal.

Improving Team Communication

The most effective teams have members who understand themselves, as well as each other. The TTI Success Insights® Team Behavioral Report not only defines team dynamics, but also guides team members to leverage behavioral knowledge for increased success. By understanding the keys to communicating with others based on behavioral styles, team members can become more effective and increase overall productivity. The results of the team report will also identify the strengths of each team member to be sure everyone is in a position to contribute to team success with their fullest potential.

Easy Application in the Workplace

The Team Behavioral Report is an important component to building effective teams because it considers each team member's individual behavioral style to determine the team's dynamics. It takes only 10 minutes to complete the 24-question online assessment, then each individual's results are combined into one, easy-to-use report. The Team Behavioral Report is an ideal tool for:

- Team Building Workshops
- Growth and Development of Team Members
- Successful Team Management
- Team Effectiveness Analysis
- Enhancing Team Communication

Report Contents

The Team Behavioral Report contains valuable information unique to the team, including:

Primary Behavioral Style Overview – The breakdown of the team members' natural and adapted behavioral styles.

Strengths of Each Behavioral Style – Characteristics that reveal the strengths of team members in each of the eight behavioral styles.

Weaknesses of Each Behavioral Style – Areas where the team member's style may prevent opportunity for improvement.

Communication Dos – Words and phrases that can be used to communicate with team members of each behavioral style.

Potential Need for Team Members – Behavioral styles that are not represented in the team dynamics.

Team Style Blending – How team members of different styles will naturally work together.

Team Member Characteristics – Key phrases and words that describe members of each style.

Words That Don't Work – Key phrases and words that should be avoided for effective communication with members of each style.

Ideal Environment – The individual's preferred work atmosphere.

The Success Insights® Wheel – The wheel depicts the team's natural styles, adapted styles and the movement between the natural and adapted styles.

Results and Benefits

The TTI Success Insights Team Behavioral Report will help you detail the strengths, weaknesses, problem solving abilities, communication preferences and potential areas for conflict within each of the behavioral styles represented by the team. By recognizing, understanding and appreciating these factors, the team can achieve increased productivity and overall team cohesiveness.

---

Provided By: